Exhibitors emphasize the significance of the trade fair

“Visiting the expo PetroTrans should be a “must” for any decision-maker in petroleum logistics. No other event comes even close to reflecting the development and current state of technology in the same way as the international trade fair expo PetroTrans does. Since its inception it has evolved into the most important event in the industry. The trade fair also developed into a forum for intensive specialist discussions at the highest level early on and is performing a pioneering role for the entire industry. Anybody who wishes to play a part in shaping the future of international petroleum logistics should be in Kassel from 27 – 29 September 2012, be it as an exhibitor or as a trade visitor.” Jürgen Saal, Nutzfahrzeuge ROHR GmbH

“expo PetroTrans has established itself as a forum, for all things new, innovative and forward-looking in terms of fuel trading and handling, which has earned a reputation far beyond Germany alone. More than ever, in times of economic boom-bust cycles, turbulence in international currency and commodity markets as well as increasing concentration in the industry, it is vital to keep it rolling, stay informed and make with new contacts. expo PetroTrans is where pioneering innovations are introduced and the fair also provides the opportunity, alongside active networking, to gain a clear picture of the “direction of travel”.” Alfred Lindner, Lindner & Fischer Fahrzeugbau GmbH
